

JOURNAL OF SCHOOL PUBLIC RELATIONS

The Journal of School Public Relations is seeking manuscript submissions for the upcoming publication and reviewers for submissions. Please review the information below and share with fellow interested colleagues.

SUBMIT YOUR MANUSCRIPT FOR PUBLICATION

The Journal of School Public Relations is a quarterly publication providing research, analysis, case studies and descriptions of best practices in the areas of public school and higher education administration, these include:

- Public relations
- Educational leadership and administration
- School and community relations
- School effectiveness and accountability
- Human resources management
- Organizational change/development and learning
- Educational reform
- Education finance

Practitioners, policymakers, consultants and professors have relied on the Journal for cutting-edge ideas and current knowledge since 1975. Articles are a blend of research and practice addressing contemporary issues, such as managing crisis in schools and on college campuses, examining the role of leadership, leading efforts to improve school community relations, and school improvement.

Review Process

Each manuscript is reviewed first by the editor or associate editor to determine fit with the mission stated above; if appropriate, it is then subjected to a double-blind review process and reviewed by two additional reviewers. Please submit your manuscript according to the submission guidelines on our website: <https://rowman.com/page/JSPP>

BECOME A JSPP REVIEWER

The Journal of School Public Relations is seeking reviewers for manuscript submissions. Reviewers are an essential part of the publication process and will gain invaluable experience in publishing.
